

I am against the Broadcast Flag Mandate. If a signal is broadcast I fail to see the need to restrict the method that it is received just because I want to use a computer to view or listen to the broadcast. I did not serve twenty years in the Air Force protecting freedom to give away my right to view or listen to broadcasts with the receiver of my choice.